

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Arbor Day was first observed with the planting of more than one million trees in Nebraska; and

WHEREAS, Arbor Day events are now observed throughout the nation and the world during the month of April; and

WHEREAS, trees can cut heating and cooling costs, moderate the temperature, clean the air, produce oxygen, provide habitat for wildlife, and reduce the erosion of our precious topsoil by wind and water; and

WHEREAS, trees are a renewable resource, giving us paper, wood for our homes, fuel for our fires and countless other wood product; and

WHEREAS, trees in our City increase property value, enhance the economic vitality of business areas and beautify our community; and

WHEREAS, trees are a source of joy and spiritual renewal.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Randy Sparacino, Mayor of Medford, do hereby proclaim the month of April as

ARBOR MONTH

and urge all citizens in Medford to support efforts to care for our trees and woodlands, to support our City's community forestry program, and to plant trees to gladden the hearts and promote the well-being of present and future generations.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF,
I hereunto set my hand this 4th day of April 2024.

Randy Sparacino
Mayor
