

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, on Friday, August 14th, the Medford community will come together to celebrate the birthday of one of our city's most cherished Ambassadors, BG Gould; and

WHEREAS, for over 50 years, BG has served the Rogue Valley sports community with unwavering passion, professionalism, and dedication, from his early days after graduating from Medford Senior High School in 1970 to his long career with the Medford School District; and

WHEREAS, BG, a proud graduate of Medford Senior High School's Class of 1970, devoted his career to the Medford School District, serving as the lead statistician for North and South Medford High Schools in basketball, football, and baseball, while also managing the welcoming and operations environment at Spiegelberg Stadium for visiting athletes, coaches, sportscasters, and media members; and

WHEREAS, BG has been a cornerstone of Medford's sports culture for more than three decades, providing statistics for Medford Legion baseball both at home and on the road, ensuring accuracy, continuity, and enthusiasm at every game; and

WHEREAS, the world of sports is woven together by a vibrant fabric of athletes, coaches, officials, fans, and support personnel. In which BG has long been a beloved and essential thread, connecting people through his presence, kindness, and dedication; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I Michael Zarosinski, Mayor of the City of Medford, do hereby proclaim August 14, 2026, as a day of honor and celebration for BG Gould, in gratitude for his extraordinary contributions to Medford, the Rogue Valley, and the broader sports community.
