

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, historic preservation is an effective tool for managing growth and encouraging sustainable development, revitalizing neighborhoods, fostering local pride and maintaining community character while enhancing livability; and

WHEREAS, historic preservation is relevant for communities across the nation, both urban and rural, and for Americans of all ages, all walks of life and all ethnic backgrounds; and

WHEREAS, it is important to celebrate the role of history in our lives and the contributions made by dedicated individuals in helping to preserve the tangible aspects of the heritage that has shaped us as a people; and

WHEREAS, the historic houses, buildings and districts of Medford help make our community unique and provide important links between our past and future.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Randy Sparacino, Mayor of the City of Medford, do proclaim May 2021 as

NATIONAL PRESERVATION MONTH

and call upon the people of Medford to join their fellow citizens across the United States in recognizing and participating in this special observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF,
I hereunto set my hand this 6th day of May, 2021.

Randy Sparacino
Mayor of Medford
