

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Child Abuse Prevention Month is recognized each April to raise awareness on the widespread problem of child abuse and neglect; and

WHEREAS, child abuse, which includes neglect, emotional maltreatment and physical, sexual or emotional abuse, are harmful childhood experiences that can have long-term, detrimental effects on a child's development, as well as their mental and physical health; and

WHEREAS, child abuse is preventable when parents, families, community partners and government agencies work together to advocate for safe environments for all children and increase access to services; and

WHEREAS, all children have the right to grow up in a caring, stable and nurturing environment, and it is our shared mission to ensure that all children can grow up healthy, ready to learn and able to thrive; and

WHEREAS, effective child abuse prevention activities succeed because of the meaningful connections and partnerships created between child welfare, education, health, community- and faith-based organizations, businesses and law enforcement agencies; and

WHEREAS, communities are encouraged to promote programs and activities that benefit children and their families. It is important to work together to increase awareness about child abuse and support the social and emotional well-being of children and families in a safe, stable and nurturing environment.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Randy Sparacino, Mayor of the City of Medford, do hereby proclaim April 2022 as in the City of Medford, and urge citizens to join in activities that promote awareness.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF,
I hereunto set my hand this 7th day of April, 2022.

Randy Sparacino
Mayor of Medford
