Electronic Message Sign, Definition: Any sign, or portion of a sign, that displays an electronic image or video, which may or may not include text, where the rate of change is electronically programmed and can be modified by electronic processes. This definition includes television screens, plasma screens, digital screens, LED screens, video boards, holographic displays, and other similar media.

Sign Permit Required: The Planning Director, or designee, shall issue a sign permit for an electronic message sign if, and only if, all of the following standards are and will be met by the business owner.

1. All text displayed on an electronic message sign must be static for a minimum of five (5) seconds.
2. The continuous scrolling of text is prohibited.
3. Restrictions (1) and (2) above do not apply to animated images and images (that are not text) which move, or give the appearance of movement.
4. All electronic message signs shall have automatic dimming capabilities that adjust the brightness to the ambient light at all times of the day and night consistent with Section 10.764, Glare (attached).
5. If the electronic message sign is permitted only with an approved Conditional Use Permit (institutional uses in SFR and MFR zones) please provide the CUP application file number: _____.

By signing this document, I certify that I have read the above rules pertaining to the electronic message sign at the address listed above, and I agree to be responsible for assuring that the electronic message sign is in compliance with these rules at all times.
